PART TIME SUPPORTED INDEPENDENT LIVING PROGRAM

We are looking for talented, energetic, and adaptable staff to complement our Supported Independent Living Program! Under the direction of the Program Manager, Direct Support Professionals support individuals with intellectual disabilities to achieve their goals, supports their choices, advocate and make a real impact in the community we live in.

WHAT IS SUPPORTED INDEPENDENT LIVING?

People live independently in their own homes or might be in transition from a life with their family into their own home. They might also be trying to figure things out and be in a challenging situation. The frequency and type of support vary with each person and are based on the expressed needs of that person.

ARE YOU THE RIGHT PERSON?

- You have diverse and transferable skills that may include a diploma or certificate in Human Services including Mental Health & Addictions, Criminal Justice, DSW or PSW
- You believe in supports that foster independence in the community that can include accessing services, developing life skills, advocacy, and safety and security.
- You are interested in making a difference through outreach
- You have a lens on harm reduction and enhanced support needs
- You are available for all shifts including, days, evenings, weekends, and overnights.
- You have a valid Ontario Driver's License (access to a reliable vehicle is a bonus!)
- Vulnerable Sector Non-Criminal Check

NICE TO HAVES BUT NOT REQUIRED (WE WILL TRAIN YOU)

- Standard First-Aid
- Non-Violent Crisis Intervention Certification
- WHMIS

EXTRA NICE TO HAVE!

- Bilingual – French/English

SALARY PAYGRID: $22.51 per hour and 4% vacation pay and 4.25% in lieu of benefits.

SCHEDULE: Shift work including day shifts, evening shifts, overnight shifts, weekends and holidays
